

Information essay contest and thesis contest

Essay contest

Requirements essay contest:

- Your work should contain between 2000 – 2500 words, excluding notes and bibliography.
- The topic has to be broadly American, trans-Atlantic topics with a focus on the United States count as well. As long as the United States play at the very least a strong supportive role in your essay.
- Your work must be in correct English.
- Your citation method has to be applied consistently.
- Your work will be checked for plagiarism.
- The final result has to be send in a pdf-format.

What happens if you win?

- We will publish your essay on our website.
- After some contact, just to be sure that you have handed your essay in under your own name, you will receive your €250,- prize money in your bank account.
- We want to invite your for a cup of coffee at our office. You will be the winner of the very first year of our contest. Naturally, we would love to stay in touch with you.

Thesis contest

Requirements

- A signed note from your thesis supervisor stating that the thesis complies with academic standards.
- Your work must be written in correct English.
- Your work will be checked for plagiarism.
- The final result has to be send in a pdf-format.
- The topic has to be broadly American, trans-Atlantic topics with a focus on the United States count as well. As long as the United States play at the very least a strong supportive role in your essay.
- The length of the thesis should comply with your university's guidelines.

Further questions;

If you have anymore questions, don't hesitate to send them to youngminds@john-adams.nl!